Welcome to the Mulberry Tree Café

We are located at historic Strelley Hall in Strelley village, this period building dates back as far as 1200AD. The Strelley Hall site provides office space for businesses and offers the large and elegant main rooms in the Hall for hire for functions such as conferences, meetings, parties and weddings.

The building housing the Mulberry Tree Café was built as stables around 1800. At the far end of the Café we have an exhibition detailing some of the history of the Hall and area.

Whilst you are here why not visit our shops in the Stables courtyard, selling, gifts, crafts, home and garden items and old fashioned sweets, plus picture framing and teddy bear repair shop. Browse the art on display in the Hayloft gallery above the shops.

The grounds of Strelley Hall are open for you to wander around (although please respect the privacy of our tenants), there are plenty of seating areas. Children will enjoy the bucket swing near to the main reception driveway.

The Mulberry Tree Café takes its name from the ancient fruit tree in the grounds. Our food is homemade using local produce, or local suppliers where possible.
